Procedures and Practices

- i) Information is considered material, if it is reasonably expected to have a material effect on:
 - a) the price, value or market activity of the Company’s securities; or
 - b) the decision of a holder of securities of the Company or an investor in determining his choice of action.

- ii) Information may include information which:
 - a) concerns the Company’s assets and liabilities, business, financial condition or prospects;
 - b) relates to dealings with employees, suppliers, customers and others;

- iv) All announcements must be approved by the Chairman/Deputy Chairman/Executive Director/majority Directors or his designate before the release of the announcements to Bursa Securities.
- v) To ensure the news or material information better understood and widely disseminated, the Company may request Bursa Securities for a suspension in the trading of the Company's securities, so that an announcement can be made during trading hours.
- vi) For press release, after review by the Chairman/Deputy Chairman/Executive Director, announcement on the same must first be released before releasing to the media to ensure widest possible public dissemination. The press release must be made available on the Company's website.

4) Withholding of Material Information

The Company may temporarily refrain from publicly disclosing material information, provided that complete confidentiality is maintained.

Where material information is withheld, the Company must refrain from delaying disclosure for an unreasonable period of time since it is unlikely that confidentiality can be maintained beyond a short period of time. In case of doubt, the presumption must always be in favour of disclosure.

The Company will only withhold material information from the public:

- i) when immediate disclosure would prejudice the ability of the Company to pursue its corporate objectives;
- ii) when the facts are in a state of flux and a more appropriate moment for disclosure is imminent; or
- iii) where company or securities laws may restrict the extent of permissible disclosure before or during a public offering of securities or a solicitation of proxies.

If material information is being withheld, the Company must ensure that confidentiality is maintained at all times to minimise leakage of information.

5) Responding to Market Rumours or Reports

- i) Whenever the Company becomes aware of a rumour or report, the Company should consult with its directors, major shareholders and such other persons familiar with the matter, to ascertain whether:
 - a) the rumour or report contains undisclosed material information; and
 - b) immediate disclosure is required to clarify, confirm or deny the rumour or report.
- ii) The Company shall not respond to or clarify articles or reports that are considered general in nature, unless such information has an impact on the price of its securities or affects investment decision.
- iii) The Company shall make an immediate announcement to deny or clarify the rumour or report and provide facts sufficient to support the denial or to clarify any misleading aspects of the rumour or report.
- iv) The Company shall make a reasonable effort to bring the relevant announcement to the attention of the particular group that initially distributed the rumour or report.
- v) In the case of an erroneous newspaper article, a copy of the announcement should be sent to the newspaper's financial editor, or in the case of an erroneous broker's market report, a copy of the announcement should be sent to the broker responsible for the report.
- vi) If the rumour or report contained material information that is correct, an announcement setting forth the facts must be prepared for public release. Such announcements are essential even if the matter has yet to be presented to the Company's board of directors for consideration.
- vii) In the case of a rumour or report predicting future sales, earnings or other quantitative data, no response from the Company is ordinarily required, unless such report is manifestly based on or contains erroneous information, or is wrongly attributed to the Company, the Company must respond promptly to the supposedly factual elements of the rumour or report as required under the ACE Market Listing Requirements ("LR") of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad ("Bursa Securities"). In addition, the Company must include in the announcement a statement to the effect that the Company has made no such prediction and currently knows of no facts that would justify making such a prediction.
- viii) If immediate disclosure is not required under the LR, the Company should decide whether to make a voluntary announcement clarifying, confirming or denying the rumour or report after consulting the board of directors.

6) Unusual Market Activity

- i) Where unusual price movement, trading activity, or both (“unusual market activity” or “UMA”) occurs, the Company must immediately:
 - a) undertake due enquiry with the relevant persons such as its directors, major shareholders and persons familiar with the affairs of the Company, to determine the cause; and
 - b) issue a clarifying announcement.
- ii) The Company must ensure that the enquiry or information gathering process is carried out efficiently and the announcement is made on an immediate basis irrespective of whether a written UMA query is issued by Bursa Securities.
- iii) If the Company determines that the UMA results from material information that has already been publicly disclosed pursuant to the LR, generally no further announcement is required. However, if the UMA indicates that such information may have been misinterpreted, a clarifying announcement is required.
- iv) If the UMA results from a “leak” of previously undisclosed information, the information in question must be publicly disclosed.
- v) If the UMA results from a rumour or report, the Company shall comply paragraph 5 above.
- vi) If the Company is unable to determine the cause of the UMA, the Company must announce that there have been no undisclosed developments which would account for the UMA.

- i) The Company must publish on its website at www.netx.com.my all announcements made to Bursa Securities as soon as practicable after the same are released on Bursa Securities’ website.
- ii) The Company’s website must contain the current office address and office contact numbers to enable the public to forward queries to the Company.

condition and its operations that have not been disclosed to the investing public, is regarded as an insider.
